

Classic Comedy Movies

---

Top Classic Comedy Films

These movies shaped the comedy genre and are still beloved today.

1. Groundhog Day (1993)

Director: Harold Ramis

A cynical weatherman relives the same day repeatedly in this clever, heartwarming comedy.

2. Ferris Bueller's Day Off (1986)

Director: John Hughes

A high school legend skips school for the most iconic day off in movie history.

3. Airplane! (1980)

Director: Jim Abrahams, David & Jerry Zucker

A parody masterpiece packed with sight gags, one-liners, and absurdity.

4. Ghostbusters (1984)

Director: Ivan Reitman

A team of eccentric scientists start a ghost-catching business in New York City.

5. The Princess Bride (1987)

Director: Rob Reiner

A fairy-tale adventure full of romance, humor, and endlessly quotable lines.

6. Monty Python and the Holy Grail (1975)

Director: Terry Gilliam & Terry Jones

A surreal, hilarious take on Arthurian legend from the Monty Python troupe.

7. Mrs. Doubtfire (1993)

Director: Chris Columbus

Robin Williams stars as a father who disguises himself as a nanny to see his children.

8. Big (1988)

Director: Penny Marshall

A boy makes a wish to become “big” and wakes up as an adult — heartfelt and funny.

9. The Mask (1994)

Director: Chuck Russell

Jim Carrey delivers an over-the-top performance as a man transformed by a magical mask.

10. Coming to America (1988)

Director: John Landis

Eddie Murphy plays an African prince searching for true love in Queens, New York.

---